

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 1894.

NO. 4

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—The aged mother of J. R. Tanksey died at her son's home 8 miles from London, Friday.

—W. A. Parsley was baptized in J. T. Brown's pond by Eld. J. G. Livingston, of the Christian church, Sunday evening.

—The examining trial yesterday Alex Tuttle for killing Rob Williams' boy resulted in Tuttle being held over till circuit court in the sum of $2,500, which will probably not be given.

—Col. Frank B. Riley was 50 years of age last Friday and in honor of the occasion the cake presented to him by Gov. John Young Brown was cut, but owing to it being election day, Col. Frank didn't quite celebrate as usual in another way, owing to the fact that he can't enjoy himself in that way all by himself. May he see a hundred more such days.

—Bob Jackson, son of Gen. Andrew Jackson, who lives four miles East of London, shot and probably fatally wounded "Black" Ed Chestnut at the home of Jackson's sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Jackson, a widow, this morning about 4 o'clock. From what the attending physician says, the shooting was premeditated. One of the bullets struck near the left temple and came out back of the ear, fracturing the skull. This Bob Jackson is not the Bob Jackson who is cashier of the First National Bank of London, Ky.

—The republican primary here Saturday resulted as follows: For county judge, W. L. Brown's plurality, with N. J. Stansberry next, 134; E. K. Wilson's majority over J. D. Smith for county attorney, 345; Frank Elliott's majority over O. M. Randall for sheriff, 27; C. N. Scoville's majority over John E. Wyatt for county clerk, 690; Ed Bullock's majority over W. F. Bray for surveyor, 292. John H. Carrier's plurality for jailer, with Henry Whitaker next, 90; John Nelson's plurality for assessor, with Ed Hale next, 114. There were light votes cast for coroner, which was left blank on the ticket; five of the eight votes were cast for the writer, who is the present coroner and who everybody knows is an avowed democrat and always votes that way. There will be a contest over the sheriff's race, affidavits having already been filed by Randall's counsel that the votes cast at certain precincts were fraudulent, &c. A large number of those supposed to be our best democrats voted in this precinct.

Christian College Notes.

[ADV.]

—The normal class is doing fine work and seems greatly interested. The classes in theory of English and theory of arithmetic are especially enthusiastic. Both branches are being developed to them in a light before unthought of by the members of the class.

—That spring has now opened, the botany class will begin to collect and analyze flowers. In addition to the valuable knowledge that will be gained by the study and practical application of botany, and the improvement of the taste and perceptive faculties, the physical exercise in roaming over fields and pastures in search of plants, will be of inestimable benefit.

—Christian College is greeted by many nice compliments from James North on his speech in the debating club at Turnersville. James has talent, and like Christian College's boys, generally, he is found in good places. These societies are excellent for young ladies and gentlemen, and, as we learn that Mrs. J. A. Gover is taking an active part in the one at Turnersville, we know that it will be conducted on the most elevated plan for literary culture.

—Mrs. John Whipp and her son, Pat, were at the College last week to see Miss Dollie Whipp. Misses Hattie Park and Kate Moore spent from Friday till Sunday afternoon with Misses Amanda and Victoria Bishop. They say that they were entertained beautifully and with the typical "Old Kentucky hospitality." Miss Mildred Holbrook, of Casey, entered C. C. on Monday, as a boarder. Miss Ethyl Wright, of Milledgeville, entered the music class last week.

—A lady, after looking carefully through Christian College, with a view of entering her daughter said that she had inspected three other colleges and that the bed-rooms in C. C. were by far the most comfortable and attractive that she had seen. The ceilings are 12 and 14 feet, and there are three and four windows to each room. The furniture is all new and open grates and mantles are over nearly the whole house.

—An entertainment will be given early in April for the benefit of the college library. A small admission will be charged. The entertainment will be well worth the price of admission, and the money cannot be appropriated to a better purpose than building a well-selected library, which is to be the property of Christian College. Libraries induce young people to read, and good, solid reading makes good, quiet, intelligent citizens.

Be sure and examine the Cooley Creamer and buy no other.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Born, to the wife of Robt. Hamilton, a 10 pound boy.

—The man with the shooting gallery is still on hand, raking in the nickles.

—A little son of Mr. R. A. Stone was killed in the head by a horse and seriously injured.

—Mr. E. W. Morrow has purchased of Dr. Herring the house and lot on Richmond street next to the railroad.

—Misses Leavel and Bessie Batson, who recently united with the Christian church, were baptized in Dix River Sunday afternoon.

—The city council has a lot of new street lamps on hand. It is to be hoped that they will put them in use, ere Gabriel blows his trumpet. Not so much gas, brethren, and a little more light.

—A horse attacked to a phaeton and belonging to Charley Anderson was left standing on the Public Square Friday. The animal became frightened and ran away, demolishing the vehicle and breaking down the lamp post on Hemphill's corner.

—As per announcement, Eld. Gowan delivered his sermon "to young men" Sunday morning. The discourse was an excellent one and full of good advice, though there were so many of the fair sex on hand not all the men who desired to hear him could get in the house.

—The republican county committee met Saturday and nominated the following gentlemen for county officers. County judge, R. A. Burnside; county clerk, John M. Duncan; sheriff, R. S. Brown; assessor, John Bomer; county attorney, W. McC. Johnson; jailer, Rice Benge; surveyor, Jonathan Creech; constable, H. Clay Hamilton. This is an unusually strong ticket. The democrats have fine material from which to select their candidates and one of the hottest elections held in Garrard in a long time may be expected.

—Sunday night just at the close of the sermon at the Methodist church, the cry of fire stampeded the congregation. It was found that the jail, directly across the street, was on fire and from all appearances would soon be reduced to ashes. A lighted lamp which was in the kitchen exploded. The floor and ceiling of the kitchen was consumed, but by heroic efforts the flames were checked here. The entire building was densely filled with smoke and it was next to an impossibility to enter, but the faithful and fearless jailer, "Big Injine" Rothwell, went through and moved the six prisoners to a place of safety. They were indeed a badly scared lot of fellows. The chemical engine, as usual, refused to work and the bucket brigade got in its work. Garrard county never had a better jailer than Sam Rothwell, and the fire was through no carelessness of his or his servants.

—Miss Lon Grant has returned from a visit to Lexington. Miss Hattie Vaughan, of Shelbyville, arrived Friday and will commence her school at Markabury on Monday. Mr. Nell West, of Perryville, visited relatives here Friday. Miss Alice Walker, of Kirksville, is the guest of Miss Jennie Doty. Messrs. Herbert Price and George Dunn, of Danville, were in town Sunday. Miss Lillie Noel, of Danville, is visiting Miss Mamie Noel. Miss Ella Watson returned from Cythiana Saturday. Mr. R. E. Hughes, of Lawrenceburg, visited his parents, Judge and Mrs. M. D. Hughes, here Saturday and Sunday. Miss Nannie Galina is reported much better. Miss Bessie Marks is visiting in Lower Garrard. Col. John K. Faulkner, of Richmond, attended the republican convention Saturday.

To the Democracy.—In accepting my defeat at the recent primary, as I do without the slightest leaven of bitterness or unkind feeling, I desire to thank you with all my heart for the courteous treatment I received everywhere and at all times in my canvass and for the handsome vote I was honored with at the polls. Respectfully, T. J. Hatcher.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Andrew Carnegie's offer to contribute a dollar for every dollar raised otherwise before March 1, for the relief of the poor in Pittsburgh cost him just $125,170 72.

—Those who fail to hear Bishop Thomas U. Dudley at the College Thursday night will miss an opportunity of listening to one of the finest pulpit orators in the country.

—Rev. J. W. Hughes, who recently preached at the Methodist church here a week or two, is holding a meeting at Dry Ridge, Grant county, and had 52 additions to last reports.

—The congregation at the First Presbyterian church at Henderson were asked after services by the pastor for contributions to assist in building a new place of worship, and $10,000 was made up in a little while.

—Among the plans the people of Cleveland are making for the great Christian Endeavor meeting there in July is included a restaurant capable of holding 10,000 people at once. It is estimated that 30,000 will attend the convention.

—The Grace Baptist Church in New York City, has fitted up a room in the church building for billiards, pool and other games of skill, for the benefit of the young men among its membership, hoping thereby to keep them from such rooms attached to saloons.

—The lecture of Rev. Marcus Laver the converted Jew, at the Baptist church Friday night was largely attended, well delivered and apparently entertained the audience. He is just 21 and was educated for a Jewish rabbi, but embraced the Christian religion some years ago and has since been working as a missionary among the Jews in New York city and Chicago. He is trying to raise means to complete a course recently begun in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, and is endorsed by many prominent Baptists in this State.

—Rev. Robert C. Cave, of St. Louis, has been chosen the orator on the occasion of the unveiling, May 30, of the monument just finished at Richmond, Va., to the memory of the private soldiers and sailors of the Confederacy. In the building of the monument each Southern State furnished an immense block of granite. The shaft is some 70 feet high and is located on Liberty Hill, just above the site of the old Libby Prison. Mr. Cave is the man who left the Christian church and attempted to start a church of his own. He is a very eloquent speaker.

FIGHTS US BUT LOVES US.—The INTERIOR JOURNAL has completed its 22nd and the Richmond Register its 28th year. Both papers are in the front rank and are among our most valuable exchanges. They are for democracy first, last and all the time, and while we occasionally clash with them on non-partisan questions, we think none the less of them on that account, for we admire the paper that has convictions of its own and the courage to stand by them regardless of consequences.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Two of the Best.—Speaking of the I. J.'s 22nd birthday the Richmond Register says: We can go you six years better, Brother Walton, in age and three years and one month better in "present management," the Register having been run by its present proprietor without a change since the first day of January, 1872. And in noting the success of the Register and INTERIOR JOURNAL as they have marched side by side for so many years, we think we make no boast when we say they are the two best county papers in the State.

QUEEN AND CRESCENT ROUTE.—"Glimpse of the World's Fair." A selection of 192 Gems of the White City seen through the Camera. This handsome volume containing 192 photographic half-tone views of the entire Exposition, showing all main buildings, all state and territorial buildings, all foreign buildings, grounds, statuary, lagoons, and about 40 views of the great Midway Plaisance, will be sent to any address on receipt of 25 cents and five cents for postage. This book has been issued by the greatest of Southern railroads—the Queen & Crescent Route—and its excellence is without a flaw. A most delightful collection of exquisite views, in a small and convenient-sized book. Many such collections are large and cumbersome. Send your address and 30 cents to W. C. Richardson, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. S. G. Hocker. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller leads all other preparations in this market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs and croup. A. W. Haldridge, Millersville, Ill. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist.

HUSTONVILLE.

—A good deal of tobacco will be planted in this section, if we are to judge from the number of plant beds that have been burned.

—The young people are preparing to render the pretty operetta, Katy Deane. The best talent in town will take part and a treat is expected.

—Elder W. L. Williams preached at the Christian church at McKinney Sunday morning and as a consequence there was no preaching at his church here.

—From the present outlook it would be safe betting that local option will carry in this magisterial district, but there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip, and a change may be brought about before the 21st.

—Misses Jennie and Anna Reid, Liz zie Drye and Kate Cook and Messrs. W. D. and George Weatherford, James W. Allen, Lud Evans and Felix Twidwell, chaperoned by Mrs. Salie Shipman, formed a merry fishing party to Green river last week. If they caught any fish they disposed of them before they returned home, as none of them brought even a scale back.

—Dr. Lee F. Huffman, wife and Miss Annie Cook, of Lexington, are visiting relatives here. Lud Evans, the commercial tourist, was here again Sunday and it looks as if things are assuming a serious hue. H. B. Hocker and friend, Archie Holmes, of Danville, spent Sunday here. D. H. Skinner has about decided to cast his lot with us. Mr. Steve G. Drye leaves Tuesday for Stanton, this State. Misses Amanda and Victoria Bishop, of the college, spent a few days with their parents near your city. They were accompanied by their schoolmate, Miss Hattie Park.

—There was a big debate at Beechwood school-house Friday night. The subject discussed was, "Which is the Incentive to Action, Hope of Reward or Fear of Punishment?" James North and Will McClure argued that the hope of reward was the incentive, and acquitted themselves in creditable speeches. John Dinwiddie and Claude Prewitt thought that it was the fear of punishment and spoke well in favor of it. The judges decided after much consideration in favor of the first two gentlemen. Miss Alice Drye added to the pleasure of the occasion by reading an interesting paper, applicable to the subject discussed, and later in the evening George Goode entertained the large audience with several recitations.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—George Kipart, of Shelbyville, Ind., aged 80, has just taken unto himself his sixth bride.

—Joseph Backer attended a wedding reception at Rosenbayer, N. J., and died suddenly after taking a drink of wine to the health of the bride and groom.

—A Kentucky editor has been sued for libel by a widow because in writing what he thought was a beautiful obituary tribute to her husband, he remarked that "the deceased had gone to a happier home."—N. O. Democrat.

—The republicans and populists of Tennessee are already arranging for a combination, hoping to defeat the democratic State ticket to be nominated next August. Gov. Turney is a candidate for the Democratic nomination, and the general impression is that he will again head the ticket.

—Senator Wilson has introduced a bill into the United States Senate to do away with ticket scalping. It will be an amendment to the Interstate Commerce act, and providing for a fine of $5,000 for selling tickets outside of a regular ticket office. All railroads are required to redeem unused tickets for 90 days.

—It is figured out at Washington that the deficit in the Government's revenues this year, which had been estimated at $78,000,000, may be below $70,000,000. The lower estimate is based upon an expected increase in revenues on account of the probable withdrawal of whisky from bond to avoid the increased tax.

It May Do As Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottles. At A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist.

EVERY FRIDAY.

The Pollard-Breckinridge case is on trial and the dailies are filled with it all. Mrs. Gov. Blackburn testified as she had deposed, that Col. Breckinridge told her he was going to marry Mudge and asked her good graces in her behalf. Little Phil Thompson, who is cross examiner general, annoyed Mrs. Blackburn greatly and she gave him some stinging replies, finally declaring that if her husband were alive her presence in court would not have been necessary. The chief of police of Washington testified with reference to a scene between the two, in which the colonel had set a time for a wedding with Miss Pollard, she having followed him to the chief's office armed with a revolver. The line of defense is not apparent yet, but it is thought that a plea will be made that the promise of marriage was made under a threat and while the defendant thought he was in danger of great bodily harm. This baby act will hardly work in court and here in Kentucky it won't take at all. The colonel claims to be a soldier, who never flickers when the gannet of battle is thrown down. The Louisville Times strikes centre when it says that there is not left one redeeming feature upon the repulsive face of this liaison, into which enter the elements of lechery, lying and hypocrisy. The whole long debauch appears to have been conducted from beginning to end upon the dead sea level of original sin. It is a low police court case of total depravity, unrelieved by a solitary side-light indicating any impulse on his part to raise a mortal to the skies or design on hers to draw an angel down. A ride in the Black Maria would be its fit finale.

The Wilson bill, so emaculated and metamorphosed that its author would not recognize it were he to meet it on the highway, has been reported by the Senate Sub-Committee to the full Committee, after weeks of unnecessary delay. Unmindful of the party's promises of tariff reform, each Senator has tried to have the special industry of his State protected, consequently sugar is removed from the free list and the tariff placed at one cent a pound on all not above 80 degrees fineness, with a small fractional increase on sugars above that grade. Iron ore and coal will have a tariff of 40 cents a ton, while other less important articles are taken from the free list. The income tax is retained with some changes and the whisky tax is increased to $1.10 with a bonded period of eight years. The time that the bill will go into effect has been changed from June let to the 30th, and so on. The Wilson bill is far from fulfilling the promises of the platform. The Senate bill is scarcely an improvement on the McKinley inquiry. Verily the democratic lawmakers are getting the party in the middle of a very bad fix.

Another remarkable, as well as disgraceful, failure of justice has occurred in Louisville. Ex-Councilman Norton killed J. H. Smith in a saloon while in a drunken frenzy. He made it all right with the widow by deeding her a house and lot, and she made no attempt to prosecute him. The result was that a jury, on Saturday last, declared the drunken murderer guilty only of "involuntary-man slaughter" and gave him one year in jail and a fine of $1,000. Even this light verdict was a surprise to the defendant who immediately moved for a new trial. Doubtless he will get it and be acquitted next time.

Coughlin, who was once convicted for life of complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin, whose body was found in the man hole of a sewer at Chicago several years ago, was acquitted last week after a remarkable trial which lasted four months. The other two men convicted at the same time that he was, died in prison, although no more guilty than he. Strange indeed are the contradictory results of alleged courts of justice.

The value of the law's delay to criminals has again been proven. George Green, after seven trials, in two of which he was convicted and once sentenced to the penitentiary for life, was acquitted Friday at Owensville. It is the usual story of witnesses dying, being run off, &c. No wonder Judge Lynch has to take a hand so often.

Hosons are crowding thick and fast on Robert W. Brown, the indefatigable managing editor of the Louisville Times. The new postmaster of his city offered him the position of assistant at $1,900 a year, but he declined it, and now Gov. Brown has made him a commissioner of the Anchorage Lunatic Asylum.

The Louisville Bee has ceased to sting. Editor W. M. Finley's $1,900 postoffice position takes all his time and he has sold the paper to Mr. Brent Altshuler, of the Star. Thus has another good man gone wrong, and given up the high estate for the low flesh pots of office.

The Legislature kicks the bucket today.

The democrats have not done all they should in the year they have been in power, but still the record is one to be proud of. They have repealed the silver purchase law, wiped that menace of liberty, the election laws, from the statute books, the pension appropriation has been reduced $15,000,000 a year and the House has passed a tariff reform bill, if not as good as it should be, still a long step in the right direction. There have been blunders and delinquencies, but the record is a pretty fair one. The repeal of the election laws and the other things to their credit cover a multitude of faults and make the year a notable one.

OFFICIAL.—The committee met yesterday and counted the vote of the late primary. There is no change in the general result, but the majorities are not so great in some instances as at first reported. James Walker Givens' over Judge W. E. Varnon for county judge is but 34; T. D. Newland's over S. M. Owens for sheriff remains the same, 67; E. D. Kennedy has 44 instead of 60 over M. F. Elkin for assessor, and G. W. DeBord for jailer 210 over Dink Farmer, instead of 200. G. B. Cooper for clerk got 1,409 votes and J. B. Paxton for attorney 1,217.

Gov. McCREARY has been in Frankfort observing the location of the land and seeing if any fences, need repairing. He has not announced his candidacy for the U. S. Senate, but he is probably in the fight and will win if the best man gets the place.

A WOMAN OF TALENT.

How Mrs. J. H. Walworth Won Success Against Obstacles.

Mrs. Walworth was born in Philadelphia 53 years ago. Her father was German gentleman of rank and talents, who came to this country on account of political troubles in his own land. His name was Hadermann. He married, soon after coming to this country, a young lady of Baltimore. Mrs. Walworth was thrown upon her own resources at a very early age. Her first effort at self support was as a governess, and later her eminent qualifications inclined her to literature. Her success has been won, against many discouraging obstacles, by force of inherent talent and a fine, courageous energy.

Among her earliest friends was Mr. Hamilton Mabie, author and editor. Her sketches in the New York Evening Post created a wide circle of admiring friends.

Her novel "The Bar Sinister" created a sensation, and it has been said of it that "it ought to shake this country as 'Oliver Twist' shook England." "Southern Silhouettes" are wonderfully clever in their graphic ability and won for her an honorary membership in the Southern Society of New York City.

Among her other works are "A Mississippi Martyr," "A Splendid Egotist," "A Strange Pilgrimage," "The New Man at Rossmore," "The Martlet Seal." She has received hearty welcome in the most critical journals and is honored in Appleton's Encyclopedia, in E. C. Steadman's "American Literature" and in "A Woman of the Century." She has accomplished much and will do still more. She has a clear cut, intellectual face, a modest manner and a nature all refinement and sweetness.

As the State, instead of the counties, is to pay for the support of idiots, we may expect a startling increase in idiocy. The pauper idiot business has many characteristics similar to the fox scalp business.—Louisville Commercial.

The large dwelling of Elijah Gifford, who lives just beyond Middleburg, burned yesterday morning. Fire caught in the roof from the kitchen fire and it was soon in ashes. Most of the contents were saved. There was no insurance.

The order of Judge Santley requiring the county court to issue liquor license to J. W. James will probably do him no good, as the city council of Crab Orchard, where he has his place of business, has refused to grant him the necessary permission.

The Lecture Committee has reserved the best wine for the last, if we may be permitted such an expression these prohibition times. The best of the series of lectures and of lecturers, Hon. L. E. Copeland will close the season here March 31. Let everybody hear him.

The prohibition fight is waxing exceedingly warm and much unnecessary excitement prevails. There is no use in sending your better garments. Let us do everything decently and in order. Local option is going to carry, that is if we read the signs of the times aright, and it is useless to get mad or excited.

The city council has been stocked by the prohibitionists. The resignations of Messrs. A. C. Sine and W. H. Wearen were accepted and S. H. Bangham and J. S. Hughes, two uncompromising anti-alcohol men, were chosen in their stead. Action on P. W. Green's application for renewal of license was again postponed at the called meeting till to-night.

Big Fish.—Mrs. Joe Coffey caught a salmon in Rockcastle river near the Livingston bridge that weighed 13 pounds. At least it bit at her hook, and she drew it to the top of the water, when it looked to her so much like a corpse that she dropped her line and screamed so loudly it stopped the mill. A friend near by ran to her rescue and safely landed the huge fish and Mrs. Coffey brought it home in triumph.

JURIES are the same everywhere in Kentucky. Referring to the recent sentence here of two years for murder and three years for stealing, the Winchester Sun says that at the last term of the circuit court a white man, who had shot a boy with intent to kill, and another who had waylaid and beaten a neighbor almost to death, were let off with light fines of $50 each, while an old negro man, who had tried to steal a few chickens and landed in jail with several ounces of birdshot in his anatomy, was sent to the penitentiary for two years.

ABOUT LICENSES.—The law providing that when a license expires between courts the person licensed can continue business until the next court, Messrs. P. W. Green and Joe Coffey withdrew their application for license yesterday, as the ones they have do not expire until to-day. They will make application next court day, provided the election fails to show a majority for the drys.

W. S. DRYE, Jr., who claims to have bought out Weatherford & Brown's saloon, applied for license although their license does not expire for two months. Wm. Wright applied for a similar permit to keep at Jonathan Russell's stand. A petition signed by considerably over a majority of the citizens of Hustonville was presented and the case was continued till Thursday.

A formidable petition was presented against John B. Smith's application for license at the Millins House, South Fork treatise, and he withdrew it.

P. W. GREEN applied for renewal of license at the Commercial Hotel, McKinney, and after a long contest it was granted. There are 65 voters in the town and it was found that 32 had protested, after those not entitled to vote had been scratched from the list. Afterward Judge Varnon thought that it was too close and granted a rehearing and fixed the time for Saturday.

The prohibitionists claim to have 186 protestants on their paper against the granting of license in Stanford, which is over a majority.

I will resume work in my shop April 1 and would like to get your carriage painting and trimming. John B. DeNardi.

GLASS & JOHNSON, general merchandise, Kingsville, have assigned, with liabilities of $3,000 and nominal assets of $4,700. The trustee, Dr. Edward Alcorn, will proceed at once to close out the stock of goods.

At the High Bridge Camp meeting last year, John Crouch of Danville, killed Sam Newton. It was thought to be a very foul murder at the time of its commission but a jury at Nicholasville Saturday, acquitted him.

Mr. JAMES YEAGER stopped on a drawing knife Saturday and it flew up cutting his heel tendon in two. He is forced to be in bed and there is danger of a stiff joint, but Dr. Cook, who dressed the wound, says he does not think it will result that way.

Mr. W. F. SHERIDAN tells us that the wrecker and pusher, with their crews, were ordered to leave Rowland yesterday for their new headquarters at Livingston. It is only a question of time, he thinks, until the dispatching office will also be removed from Rowland.

The local option election in the Crab Orchard present resulted as we predicted in a victory for the drys. There were 440 votes cast and the majority for local option was 55. The election was hotly contested but no bad blood was aroused. About 100 voters did not participate.

PUT OUT THE FIRE.—Col. W. H. Dunderar's residence at Rowland caught fire from a spark from the chimney Sunday, and when discovered the roof was a blaze. He used his hose on it though and soon had it under control. As he has been from the start, Mr. Dunderar is a great admirer of the water works.

The Barboursville man, who has been working the newspapers with fake news is catching it on all sides. The Courier-Journal, which was taken in several times by him, devotes a column of editorial to the matter in which it refers to him as "scatter brain scoundrel" "pestiferous imbecile and so on.

CARD OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Green desire us to extend their sincere thanks to the good people, who were so kind to them in their late bereavement. When little Maggie was sick they were untiring in their efforts to render assistance, and when life passed from her dear body they were equally as kind with their help and words of comfort to the grief-stricken ones.

In the county court yesterday the will of W. M. Higgins, bearing date of Nov. 4, 1885, was admitted to probate. The widow is provided for as the law directs and the estate is to be divided equally among his four children, J. A., G. C. and W. H. Higgins and Mrs. G. D. Hopper, after the two latter are given accounts equal to those already given to the two former. Millie Cloyd's will was also probated.

The jury in the Lucy End's case hung, standing seven in her favor and five for the appointment of a committee for her.

When Rockwood, Tenn., was on a boom, Mr. K. L. Tanner bought a lot from a man there on a guarantee that certain great improvements were to be made. He paid $200 down and executed two notes for $288 payable with interest. An alleged innocent purchaser, Mr. T. B. Clark, demanded payment of these notes when they fell due and on being refused brought suit. Mr. Tanner plead that the terms of the sale had not been complied with and the jury, taking no stock in the "innocent purchaser," racket found for him.

The case of Jim Banks for the murder of Jim Middleton was not reached till Saturday a little before noon. Both sides were ready and 11 jurors obtained. The defendant's attorneys agreed to select from the lay standers, but the Commonwealth's attorney was suddenly taken with the spring fever and refused to agree to it, thus continuing the case till next court. It is a good thing for the jailer but the Commonwealth suffers by the action.

The grand jury found 11 indictments Friday, making 50 in all and adjourned. James Wickersham was indicted in two cases by Mr. Crabtree for furnishing liquor on election day, but he says he can easily prove out of it.

The court finally adjourned Saturday after sending three negroes to the penitentiary, Ed Welch, murder, two years; Wm. Trice, burglary, two years, and Green Hiatt, till tapping, three years. Two other negroes were given jail sentences, Preston Hays Williams, six months for stealing clothing and Wm. Alcorn 30 days for stealing a turkey. A white man, Wm. King, got 30 days for stealing a hog. Olie Paul's bail was reduced to $2,500 from $4,000. John Traylor was given bail in $1,000 for cutting his brother, Capt. Wm. Herndon was allowed for four days as special judge, S. M. Owens $15 and J. N. Menefee $24 for waiting on the court. County Clerk G. B. Cooper reported $711.55 on deeds, mortgages, licenses, &c.; J. P. Bailey $403.26 on petitions, fines, &c., and Judge W. E. Varnon $23 for a similar tax. G. L. Penny, trustee of the jury fund, says that he paid jurors at this term $755. A large number of claims for pauper idiots, rewards, fees, &c., were allowed against the Commonwealth, which together with the other expenses, makes quite a sum drawn from the treasury.

R. W. FLETCHER, an unusually well informed colored man from Lancaster, spoke at the court-house Saturday night to a large crowd in favor of prohibition. Samuel Ront, a local orator of the same color, also orated.

Hon. THOMAS.—Constable Benedict arrested and took to Danville the other day, Henry Gilpin, who is wanted for hog stealing at Parksville. He caught him near Middleburg. Lige Pentecraft, who was with Gilpin when the theft was committed, is now serving a short term in the pen.

The meeting of the Caledonian Society at the court-house next Saturday night is looked forward to with much pleasure. Besides an interesting debate, several young ladies will sing solos and the Uniformed Stanford Gold Band will discourse some of its best music.

Just 226 married women and over 100 of those single bits of loveliness that abound in and around Stanford signed a petition printed in the ISTERION JOURNAL asking all to vote for prohibition. What chance have the drinkers with this broadside arrayed against them?—Courier Journal.

A DISPATCH from Barboursville says that young W. B. King, who suddenly disappeared from home about three weeks ago, has been located at Memphis so his family say. There has been no reason assigned for his sudden departure, and the whole matter yet remains a mystery. About the 21st of February he left home one evening late after eating a hearty supper and said nothing to any one about his intentions, and foul play was suspected for quite awhile. He is largely in the lumber business, but is not involved, and his conduct is inexplicable. He is a son of B. B. King, of this county.

R. LEE METCALF, the fellow who tried to beat the fair association out of $35, the amount he owed for privileges, and who afterwards came back as an actor (?) in the "Bright Idea Co.," and stole the manager's umbrella, is at last in jail at Lexington where he should have been years ago. He got a friend to cash a check for $42 drawn on the Phoenix Bank, at Lexington, while he was at Mt. Sterling, and when the friend found out he had been "worked" he very promptly went to Lexington and had Metcalf arrested. He was given bail in the sum of $500 but he couldn't raise it and now he languishes in durance vile.
